Nolan Financial Receives Sixteenth Consecutive SOC-1 Attestation Continuing to Set High Industry Standard

Bethesda, Maryland – April 19, 2022: Nolan Financial Group is proud to have received its SOC-1, Type 2 attestation for sixteen consecutive years.

The SOC-1, Type 2 audit is conducted annually by independent outside auditors and tests the effectiveness of Nolan Financial's internal controls, processes, and risk assessments. The audit also includes external penetration testing of Nolan Financial's network infrastructure as well as client and participant web interfaces. The SOC-1 audit results provide assurance to plan sponsors and their independent auditors of the effectiveness of Nolan Financial's control environment and data security.

"It's quite an accomplishment to have sixteen consecutive SOC-1 reports with absolutely no material exceptions," said Michael E. Nolan, President and CEO of Nolan Financial. "Nolan Financial has always been dedicated to providing best-in-class service to our clients. Each year we devote considerable resources on reviewing and updating our processes, procedures, and security protocols. The results of our SOC-1 audit validate that Nolan Financial has implemented best practice controls that ensure the effectiveness of our data security measures and the accuracy of our financial reporting and plan administration services."
